The Week.

Money is no longer a drug here, because trade and industry are strong without having a pay-off. The price of grain and meat has increased 50 per cent larger than in last year, for the week, and 17.3 per cent larger than in 1892.

8. vast expansion from 140,000,000 to 200,000,000 bushels of wheat and 140,000,000 bushels of corn, with a little more, should have been thought impossible long ago, and railroad earnings in September have equalled those of 1892, and exceed last year by 12.3 per cent.

In the weeks, 1891 and 1892,

1891.82 in 1892, shows a gain of 7.3 per cent.

The heavy importation of wheat holds the average price of wheat stocks $2 per bushel, but they recovered $1.

A. W. BLANCHARD, M. E. HOWARD,

Correspondents items of news are supplied from all readers of the Gazette. Every one knows of the important facts or happenings that occur in these states.

While we have an ample scope of regular contributors, there is much of interest in the nature of things, they cannot get. Let your interest in our local paper be paid in your advertising.

all in making the Gazette more bright and newsy.

ENTERED AT THE POST OFFICE AT WEY-

MOUTH, MASS., AS SECOND CLASS MATTER.

FRIDAY, OCT. 15, 1897.

You can find many things of interest by reading our advertising columns of this week. Home stores have opened up the stock of goods and purchases need not go out to town to find what they want to eat, drink or wear.

11 the boy who wrote of "beautiful June"

had lived until this week, he would have adopted his verse to the present season.

The lover of the beautiful need not go far from his home in Weymouth to find the person who did not take in the beauty

around us on Wednesday and Thursday morning will live forever with a blank in his memory.

Political.

At the Democratic County convention

Meet, Smith, Howland and Baldwin, the complaints were many.

The Democratic County convention was held at Weymouth Saturday. Thirteen out of thirty delegates were present.

James D. Grant declined to speak again in support of Senator and Tribune R. Newell of South

Weymouth, who had been nominated by the local Democratic committee.

V. Souther had four votes and James H.

Grant had seven and was elected. Here

the hand of Frank A. Hobart of Braintree was seen, as moderator of the Braintree delegation, was a rather sudden and surprising addition.

It was claimed that Mr. Souther was not in sympathy with the principles of the party or of the Tribune.

T. Souther defended him saying that he was a stronger Bryan man in Massachusetts.

There may be more fun in the future as the outcome of the Hobart-Souther rivalry.

Just now Hobart seems to be on top but soon Souther will be.

At the Gold & Commercial convention

Harrison G. Apthorpe of Milton was nominated for state senator for the First North

District. District committee are D. G.

of Braintree, G. R. Rivers of Milton,

Matthew Skelton of Milton, A. P. Worth

of Weymouth, S. S. Neal of Hyde Park

and F. D. Rice of Quincy.

Councillor Lowell.

Councillor Lowell's tribute to Councillor

Lowell recalls the somewhat famous effort of the orator who had to refer to his notes to assist him in reading the names of George Washington, Abraham Lincoln

and other immortals.—Boston Herald.

Novel Entertainment at North Weymouth

The Ladies' club of the Pilgrim Congregational Church, North Weymouth opened the season Wednesday evening with an entertainment in the auditorium of the church.

The affair was a grand success and undoubtedly the most novel entertainment

ever given in the town.

The attraction was Mrs. Addie Chase of Weymouth, a well known singer and entertainer. During the selections the large audience were repeated

to enliven the evening by rendering hymns

and the idea proved to be a good one allowing the reader intervals of much needed rest.

Mr. Smith's work is well known to any one comments and although all of her selections were excellent and well rendered, the audience was greatly impressed.

At the close of the entertainment

the audience was invited to a large room where the ladies and gentlemen were entertained by the ladies and gentlemen.

Amherst and Hobart Mills.

Mr. Francis Hobart, a well known engineer, has opened a new office in the old Fitch Mill. The former counting room was somewhat contracted the new will extend into the old enclosing more space, and two windows

will furnish better light.

Few People Have Eyes Alike.

Both eyes of those who wear glasses have different vision in each eye. Sometimes it is a decided difference, in others only a slight variation. A careful examination will fail to bring out this defect—the same lenses won't be adjusted to each eye—and headaches and eye strain that medicine fails to relieve is the result. I test each eye separately, select proper lenses, adjust glasses to suit both eyes from as complete a Test Case as is made.

No extra charge for testing the eyes. Hold Spectacles, $1.00 to $5.00. If you are having any trouble with your eyes or head call and see if I can't relieve you.

—William Hall started Wednesday night for Maine where he will spend a week or so gleaning and testing.

—Walter Cummings, a former resident, who has been living with his parent's at Union, Maine, is in town and taking part in the 4th of July. The people would like to see the two systems for a moment apart so that every time there is a storm, the people will get a good up-to-date.

—D. J. E. Connell is back in the store again after a week's vacation.

FRIDAY, OCT. 22, 1897.

Tomorrow, Saturday, from 12 to 10 p.m., the board of Registrars hold their first meeting for the purpose of registering voters. So far as the registering has been done, it is not to be expected that last year there were any unusual names registered and nearly all of the usual names were registered and possibly in part to the fact that this is an "off year" and there is no special excitement in the campaign. The board of Registrars will be held in the Masonic building in Wemyouth and let a full regalia and the election a full vote.

The Shaker Digestive Cordial is especially adapted for convalescents and invalids who food does them little or no good because it is not digested. The Cordial is a tonic, astringent, and restorative, and is well suited for food largely contained.

After completing arrangements for organizing the first meeting of its organization which will take place in December, the meeting adjourned.

MONDAY, OCT. 21.

The Monthly Club held its monthly meeting on Tuesday at 2:30 o'clock on last Monday afternoon.

At 3 o'clock the regular meeting was opened by the president who introduced the speaker of the afternoon, Mrs. Kate Townsend Wemyouth.

After closing her address, Mrs. Woods who is the leading organizer of several women's clubs gave several important points on club management.

The lecture was on Pads and needed.

The literature and Art class will have its first lecture at the residence of Mrs. Beatty Bates, Broad street, East Wemyouth, at 7:30 p.m. This class will undoubtedly be very interesting and instructive.

Correspondence and news of events are solicited from all readers of the Gazette. Every one knows of some interesting facts or happenings that others would like to receive.

News of all kinds, except copies of regular publications, there is much of interest that the editor of the Gazette, they cannot get. Let your interest in your local paper and place it in your town lead you in making the Gazette the most bright and useful.

ENTERED AT THE POST OFFICE AT WEMYOUTH, MASS., AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER.

FRIDAY, OCT. 20, 1890.

Boston express a check of a tick of enthusiasm all over the country in relation to the election of next Tuesday. Let us not forget that there is to be an election, that Weymouth has nearly 3000 voters and that voting precincts are now quite busy to every man on the list.

There is but to everything even to the extent to which a country newspaper can be used as a free advertising agency and will speak for the candidates in relation to the election. We are willing to do our share in helping all public charities and town enterprises but advance mention of voting precincts for private enterprises is not to be expected and there is but to which a line of consequently people may not be surprised if some such articles are omitted unless accompanied by advertising rates.

Girls Strike for Unlimited Speech.

A strike in the Brockton (R. I.) News office is the sensation in Cleverport today. Miss Mary Ryan, Laura Veger and Delta Bell, whose names are in this city, have joined in the strike. Some weeks ago a notice was placed under the clock in the office, which read: "All on time?" This morning when the girls came to work the words, "All still tongue makes a full stock," stoned them in the face. The girls, who are the daughters of J. D. Baldwin, the publisher, that all such "smokes" be removed. Mr. Baldwin refused and the girls walked out of the office, not to return—Londine Dispatch.

Never let an editor how to run his paper. Let the poor find out on his paper. Texas Sifters.

Local Advertising.

A newspaper whose columns overflow with the interests of business men has more influence than any other paper in the country. It is a good paper and building up its local and national advertising is a great service to the country. Some weeks ago a notice was placed under the clock in the office, which read: "All on time?" This morning when the girls came to work the words, "All still tongue makes a full stock," stoned them in the face. The girls, who are the daughters of J. D. Baldwin, the publisher, that all such "smokes" be removed. Mr. Baldwin refused and the girls walked out of the office, not to return—Londine Dispatch.

Discouraging.

"It's just my luck," said Farmer Corr, frowning. "I'm the wuss guesser of 'em all. The only real way for a man to get along in life under his load is what he's oughta do, not keep 'old' 'jeet' at."

"Nothing else, last year I raised wheat when I ordered her to�� and lammas boards. This year I took in lammas boards. When I order her raised wheat," Washington Star.

Taking No Chances.

"There is no hope, doctor?" asked the fair-haired, fair-faced woman, to her doctor. "The only real way for a man to get along in life under his load is what he's oughta do, not keep 'old' 'jeet' at."

"None at all," answered the wizened, murmuring: "How the wuss have Iblu' in off soft, safe."

"You are sure?"

"Well, I'll risk it. I'd hate thoughts to buy that blit of gools and have him get well on me," Judge.

A Deadlier Weapon.

Mostly I'll just—I know you've got the aching load of that house. But don't you know that a woman come to the doctor? I thought you'd feel too many of 'em to be shocked off by a woman's tongue."

Tufford Knott—I'll wuss'ta'ferd of her tongue, but she come up with a hump—Cleango Thibodeau.

Mrs. Kelly (proudly)—Begorra, that's Molke all over—Toroito News.

It Was His Name.

"Suffit, like he's a man comin' when I know him slightly. I go to call him 'Gloria.' And I don't want another man who says I've got plenty of 'em, and that my butter is the best in the market, that are as flies on my sugar, and that my butter is the strongest. In the meat, may mean well, but he is not the man I want to flatter me a second time—Boston.

POLITICAL POTPOURRI.

It will take you but a few moments, on Tuesday, to cast your vote for the best man in this state. I had this day by the hand, and putting your "cross" against the name of Governor Walcott. And, while you are there, be sure to also put your mark of approval against all the other Republican nominees on the state ticket.

When a man has made a good record in office, it is well to show your appreciation by a positive endorsement. In this way, you can help to give the election a decided edge, by voting for the reelection of Governor Walcott. At the same time, you can endorse the excellent records of his fellow candidates on the state ticket. Put the mark against them all.

There are always a great many men who have special claims before parties. They do not take in active interest in politics, but are satisfied with a general sense of satisfaction by voting for the reelection of Governor Walcott. At the same time, you can endorse the excellent records of his fellow candidates on the state ticket. Put the mark against them all.

It will be a source of great pleasure and satisfaction to know, on the day of election, that Hogan, Walcott, has had an overwhelming endorsement by the people. Do you want to make it as emphatic as possible? Then, go to the polls before you go to your business and get it off your mind. You will rest easier all day, and be a great deal happier the next day.

It is the duty of Massachusetts Republicans to give a tremendous victory for the Republican candidates and principles. She has great reason to be thankful that at the last election these candidates and principles were successful. Let the Republicans have emphasis on the verdict of 1890 by showing out in 1891 the proper support of your party.
